3. If more than one person is the Owner of the same Lot, all such Owners shall be members and remain jointly and severally liable for all membership obligations. The Board of Directors may waive the requirement of the certificate if satisfied that the person attempting to cast the vote for a Lot is the proper representative of the Owner(s).

If more than one person is the Owner of the same Lot or if more than one fiduciary or one official is acting in the premises, notice to such person shall be deemed to have been given, when given in accordance with this paragraph to the person named in the certificate filed with the Board of Directors in accordance with Paragraph 3 of Article I. Alternatively the Association may bring suit against any Owner for the amount of any unpaid assessments and shall be entitled to recover the costs thereof, including reasonable attorney's fees, from the Owner. These remedies shall be cumulative and not in lieu of any other remedy allowed by law.

The Owner of a Lot pursuant to a voluntary conveyance or by inheritance or devise shall be jointly and severally liable with the grantor or prior Owner for all unpaid assessments against the grantor or prior Owner, but without prejudice to the right of such grantee or devisee to recover from the grantor the amounts paid therefor. The grantee or other successor in interest of an individual subject to a levy of an assessment on account of default shall be liable for any such special assessment.

No amendment may be adopted at either a special or regular membership meeting not included in the notice thereof, except if notice of the proposed amendment has been given, an amendment relative to the same subject may be adopted by those present, in person or by proxy and possession the requisite percentage of membership and voting interests, provided further, no vote by proxy may be counted unless the proxy expressly provides for such contingency. Notice referred to herein shall be given in the manner prescribed and to the persons described in Article II Section 4. More than one proposed amendment may be included in the notice of a meeting.
